EIGHTEENTH CONGRESS
First Regular Session

House Bill No. 6147

Introduced by REPRESENTATIVE ERIC L. OLIVAREZ

EXPLANATORY NOTE

This Bill is intended to provide for the Overseas Filipino Workers comprehensive Pre-Departure Orientation Seminars (PDOS) to all departing overseas workers. Included in the curriculum are subject matters that are of significant importance which shall be beneficial to the OFWs. Some of the subject matters are basic language course of destination countries, issues on human rights and drug trafficking, occupational safety and benefits, and more. Given that the OFWs are faced with much challenges as they are employed in a different country which is not their home, through the PDOS, OFWs are provided with vital and critical information which will help their overall well-being while being away from home. As such, the passage of this Bill is earnestly sought.
