HOUSE BILL NO. 6683

Introduced by HON. JOY MYRA S. TAMBUETING

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The micro, small and medium enterprises sector is observed to be among those severely hit by the COVID-19 crisis, with the implementation of the enhanced community quarantine to mitigate the transmission of the COVID-19. The enhanced community quarantine has forced non-essential businesses to temporarily cease their operations in compliance to the strict home quarantine measures imposed by Proclamation No. 929 effective 16 March 2020. With most of these non-essential businesses being MSMEs, these enterprises are struggling to cope with the crisis as there is no cash flow coming in during and even before the implementation of enhanced community quarantine.

Based on the 2018 statistics of the Department of Trade and Industry, micro, small and medium enterprises (MSMEs) make up 99.52% (which amounts to 998,342 MSMEs) of the recorded total of 1,003,111 business enterprises in the country. Majority of the MSME establishments are micro enterprises which constitutes 88.45% of the total, while small and medium enterprises make up 10.58% and 0.49% of the total, respectively. During the same year, MSMEs have generated a total of 5,714,262 which constitutes over 60% of the country's total employment.

While a thirty-day grace period for loan payments have already been imposed under the Bayanihan to Heal as One Act, it is still necessary for the government to provide further relief to these enterprises in order to prevent them from closing down and causing mass unemployment. As these businesses rely heavily on daily income, these businesses are now facing liquidity issues due to the closure of establishments under the enhanced community quarantine. Despite the zero cash flow during the months of March, April and May 2020, these enterprises still need to shell out money to cover operational expenses such as utilities, rent, wages and benefits to their employees, and taxes. Further, there is no guarantee that the cash flow upon the resumption of business operations will revert to the typical cash flow before the COVID-19 crisis.

In this regard, this proposed measure shall provide the following relief a to affected micro, small and medium enterprises: (1) imposing discounted rent or lease rates during the period wherein enhanced community quarantine and a month thereafter; (2) rent subsidy program for the months of March, April and May 2020; (3) waiving of both employer and employee share of premium payments to SSS, PhilHealth and Pag-IBIG; and (4) deferral of tax payments for MSMEs. The abovementioned relief measures are proposed to enable MSMEs to recover from the losses they incurred for the past few months and continue their operations to further contribute to the economic recuperation of the country.

On behalf of the people of Parañaque City Second District, and for the common good of the Filipino people, the approval of the said measure is earnestly sought.
