AN ACT
IMPOSING SALES TAX IN LIEU OF VALUE-ADDED TAX, REPLACING FOR THE PURPOSE THE ENTIRE PROVISIONS OF TITLE IV, AND AMENDING SECTION 116, TITLE V, AND SECTION 236, TITLE IX, OF THE NATIONAL INTERNAL REVENUE CODE OF 1997, AS AMENDED, AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES

EXPLANATORY NOTE

In 1987, Executive Order No. 273 was issued whereby the government sought to replace sales tax regime with a multi-stage value-added Tax (VAT) system. The adoption of the VAT system was one of the structural reforms provided in the 1986 Tax Reform Program designed to simplify tax administration and to make the tax system more equitable.

However, despite the laudable purpose of shifting to the VAT system, the present tax regime has presented several disadvantages, particularly in the matter of its administration.
From 2008 to 2019, the Bureau of Internal Revenue (BIR) reported that the total input tax exceeded the total output tax at an increasing rate of 25% to 47%. As of the end of 2019, the excess of input tax over output tax amounted to P924.6 billion.

The BIR also disclosed that the effective collection rate of the VAT for the past 12 years ranged only from 2.8% to 3.1%. In other words, while the 12% VAT passed on to consumers is dutifully paid, an average of only 3% is being collected by the government, translating to a collection efficiency of only 25%.

These records for the past 12 years demonstrate the existence of loopholes that beset our VAT system. These loopholes emanate from the inherent complexity of the VAT system, particularly in the possible abuses that may be used to manipulate the input tax mechanism as well as the difficulty of administering and monitoring thereof.

This bill seeks to amend the present VAT system and shift to a simple sales tax system, which will effectively do away with the tax loopholes. The proposed sales tax system, which will implement a gross taxation system, aims to (a) eliminate the abuse of the input tax mechanism of the present VAT system; and, (b) simplify the monitoring and administration by the government.

Furthermore, the proposed sales tax system will also impose a lower tax rate, significantly reducing the tax which consumers pay on goods and services.

In light of the foregoing, the immediate enactment of this proposed legislation is sought.
