EIGHTEENTH CONGRESS
Second Regular Session
House Bill No. 7104

INTRODUCED BY
REP. ALFRED VARGAS

AN ACT
DECLARING A ONE-TIME AMNESTY FOR UNPAID SOCIAL SECURITY SYSTEM CONTRIBUTIONS, INCLUSIVE OF FEES, FINES, PENALTIES, INTEREST, AND OTHER ADDITIONS THERETO, BY EMPLOYERS OF HOUSEHELPERS UNDER REPUBLIC ACT NO. 7655, OTHERWISE KNOWN AS “AN ACT INCREASING THE MINIMUM WAGE OF HOUSEHELPERS, AMENDING FOR THE PURPOSE ARTICLE 143 OF PRESIDENTIAL DECREE NO. 442, AS AMENDED” AND REPUBLIC ACT NO. 10361, OTHERWISE KNOWN AS “AN ACT INSTITUTING POLICIES FOR THE PROTECTION AND WELFARE OF DOMESTIC WORKERS,” AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Recent data shows that around 2.033 million Filipinos are employed under private households or are considered domestic workers or “kasambahay” 1. This constitutes five percent of the employed worker population of the country in 2018. Yet, despite the passage of the Republic Act No. 10361, otherwise known as “An Act Instituting Policies for the Protection and Welfare of Domestic Workers” or the Batas Kasambahay in 2013, only a few of the domestic househelpers are members of the Social Security System (SSS), the Philippines Health Insurance Corporation (PhilHealth), and the Pag-IBIG fund. This also means that the records of househelp employers who complied with the Batas Kasambahay is quite low. The Department of Labor and Employment (DOLE) has urged househelp employers ever since.

---

1 Philippine Statistics Authority. July 2018 Labor Force Survey,
The low compliance can be attributed partially to the penalty provision in the Social Security Law. Due to this provision, a large number of employers who wanted to comply with the registration requirements were unable to comply with the law, as they were imposed huge, unpaid SSS contributions and penalties dating way back from 1993.

This bill will provide employers with an opportunity to settle their SSS contribution without any penalties, through a one-time amnesty, thus enabling them to push for compliance without any financial burden, while arming their house-helpers with valuable social security benefits.

In view of the foregoing, the passage of this bill is earnestly sought.
