AN ACT
STRENGTHENING THE CONSERVATION AND PROTECTION OF OUR NATIONAL CULTURAL HERITAGE, THROUGH AN ENHANCED CULTURAL POLICY, HERITAGE EDUCATION, AND CULTURAL MAPPING PROGRAM, AMENDING FOR THE PURPOSE REPUBLIC ACT NO. 10066 OR THE NATIONAL CULTURAL HERITAGE ACT OF 2009

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The importance of National Cultural Heritage has long been given due recognition. No less than our nation's constitution states the importance of heritage. Not just once, but on several different occasions. This is just a testament to how the framers of our constitution credit with veracity, our culture, our story. They believed that a vital component to our nation building is through the continuous understanding of our nation's patrimony and heritage. It reminds us of our history, states our common present, and envisages our shared future.

To further strengthen the conservation and protection of heritage in the country, this bill seeks to amend Republic Act No. 10066 to (1) revise, include, and adapt terms and provisions as deemed fit to the current landscape of the cultural industry; (2) mandate local government units (LGUs) to conduct a cultural mapping program for their respective areas for both tangible and intangible and natural and built heritage, utilizing the results of the program as a framework for culture based governance; and (3) revise and enhance the scope of Cultural education in the country;

For the above cited reasons, the passage of the bill is urgently sought.
