Oriental Mindoro Management Resources Corporation (OMARCO) is a corporation duly incorporated on 05 March 1966, with principal office address at Calapan, Oriental Mindoro. The company was granted a franchise to construct, install, establish, operate, manage and maintain for commercial purposes and in the public interest, radio and/or television broadcasting stations anywhere in the Philippines by virtue of Republic Act (R.A.) 8128.

Under Section 24, Article 11 of the 1987 Philippine Constitution, “the State recognizes the vital role of communication and information in nation-building.” The fundamental law expressly recognizes the importance of meaningful communication and information dissemination to build a strong Philippine nation.

Considering the mandate in the constitution, OMARCO seeks the granting of its franchise by virtue of R.A. 8108. Moreover, the granting of OMARCO’s franchise would allow it to broadcast relevant social and educational information to citizens throughout the country. During the ongoing public health crisis, the State has the duty to ensure that its citizens have easy and steady access to national and local issues to guide them in their daily lives.

Hence, OMARCO earnestly seeks the grant of the renewal of this congressional franchise subject of this application to continue its operation and management of its radio and broadcast stations.
