EIGHTEENTH CONGRESS
Second Regular Session

House Resolution No. 1301

Introduced by Hon. Anthony Peter “Onyx” D. Crisologo

A RESOLUTION CONGRATULATING SANTUARIO DE SAN PEDRO BAUTISTA PARISH IN SAN FRANCISCO DEL MONTE, QUEZON CITY ON ITS DESIGNATION AS A MINOR BASILICA BY POPE FRANCIS

WHEREAS, on July 9, 2020, the Diocese of Cubao announced that Pope Francis elevated the status of Santuario de San Pedro Bautista Parish, located in San Francisco Del Monte, Quezon City, to a minor basilica.

WHEREAS, as of filing, there are only seventeen (17) other minor basilicas in the Philippines.

WHEREAS, Santuario de San Pedro Bautista Parish is one of the oldest churches in the Philippines established in 1590 and has played a big role in the history of Quezon City being the oldest church in the area.¹

WHEREAS, it is said that the designation of a church as a minor basilica is a sign of recognition from the Vatican that acknowledges its historical value and significance as a place of worship.²

WHEREAS, the country shall recognize and celebrate the achievement of the now Basilica Minore de Santuario de San Pedro as it continues to bring pride and joy to the country through its commitment and service to the people.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the House of Representatives congratulates Santuario de San Pedro Bautista Parish on its designation as a minor basilica by Pope Francis.

Adopted, October 15, 2020
