With the permission of the Body, the following Members were made coauthors of the Bills and Resolutions hereunder indicated:

Rep. Pantaleon D. Alvarez for House Bills No. 475 and 1208 and House Resolutions No. 16, 17 and 20;

Rep. Lord Allan Jay Q. Velasco for House Bill No. 167;

Reps. France L. Castro, Emmi A. De Jesus, Antonio L. Tinio, Arlene D. Brosas, Ariel B. Casilao and Sarah Jane I. Elago for House Bill No. 1619;

Rep. H. Harry L. Roque Jr. for House Bills No. 6, 8, 17, 20, 37 and 40; and Reps. Edward Vera Perez Maceda and John Marvin "Yul Servo" C. Nieto for House Bill No. 206.

Thereafter, the Chair recognized Rep. Edcel C. Lagman on a question of personal and collective privilege regarding the status and recognition of the Minority Leader subsequent to the previous day's election for the speakership.

QUESTION OF PRIVILEGE OF REP. LAGMAN

Rep. Lagman initially said that both the trimedia and the social media, as well as other interested parties are puzzled why Rep. Teddy Brawner Baguilat Jr. has not yet been officially recognized as the Minority Leader of the House. He stressed that the House cannot democratically function without a Minority Leader; the Committee on Rules cannot function with only the Majority represented; and the House Rules provide that the Minority Leader and five Deputy Minority Leaders shall be automatic members of said Committee.

He posed the argument that it was inevitable and uncontestable that Rep. Baguilat is the new Minority Leader. Firstly, he argued that as the runner-up candidate for Speaker, by tradition and practice, Rep. Baguilat is automatically the Minority Leader having garnered more votes than the other losing candidate for the Speaker, Rep. Danilo E. Suarez. He said that the validity of the customary practice or tradition of the House to officially consider as Minority Leader the runner-up or the candidate garnering the second highest number of votes, has never been questioned and has been invariably adopted from one Congress to another that it has acquired the character of law or binding rule on the Members of the House.

Secondly, Rep. Lagman ventured that Rep. Suarez had disqualified himself from seeking the position of Minority Leader because he voted for Speaker Pantaleon D. Alvarez. This, as he quoted the remarks of Rep. Suarez in the previous session wherein the latter said that he cannot vote for himself and that he was casting his vote for Speaker Alvarez. He averred that Rep. Suarez was not prohibited from voting for himself, as he cited a precedent in the 16th Congress when the two losing contenders for the speakership, Rep. Ronaldo B. Zamora and former Rep. Ferdinand Martin G. Romualdez, both voted for themselves. He argued that Rep. Suarez had effectively joined the Majority when he voted for Speaker Alvarez, as he cited Section 8, Rule II of the amended Provisional House Rules which provides that Members who vote for the winning candidate for Speaker shall constitute the Majority. He added that the seven votes cast for the latter may even be eventually declared invalid.

Rep. Lagman's third argument was that Majority Leader Fariñas was in estoppel because when he recognized Reps. H. Harry L. Roque Jr. and Raul A. Daza to respectively nominate Reps. Suarez and Baguilat after Speaker Alvarez' victory was a foregone conclusion, he was fully aware that there were two contenders for the position of Minority Leader. When Rep. Baguilat bested Rep. Suarez, he stressed, it was clear and unmistakable that Rep. Baguilat became the Minority Leader.

Rep. Lagman's final argument was that the 20 Members, except Speaker Alvarez, who abstained from voting were neither with the Majority nor the Minority and were considered as "independent Members" as provided for by the last paragraph of Section 8, Rule II. He pointed out that said Members could choose to join the Majority or Minority in accordance with the prescribed procedure. He opined that Rep. Fariñas' position that those who abstained were members of the Minority, violated the spirit and phraseology of the House Rules. Adverting to a precedent in the 16th Congress wherein Rep. Zamora (R.) was automatically recognized as Minority Leader when he garnered three more votes than former Rep. Romualdez in their losing bid for the speakership, Rep. Lagman said that the election for the Minority Leader will be an exercise in futility at present because Rep. Baguilat's eight votes were more than Rep. Suarez' seven votes.

MANIFESTATION OF REP. DAZA

Upon recognition by the Chair, Rep. Raul A. Daza manifested his desire to interpellate Rep. Lagman. With the permission of the Chair, Rep. Lagman said that he would yield after finishing his speech.

QUESTION OF PRIVILEGE OF REP. LAGMAN
(Continuation)

He pointed out that the provision that the Minority Leader shall be elected by the members of the Minority, will only apply when there is no clear-cut winner for the position of Minority Leader like when two or more contenders are tied with the same number of votes. He added that the Minority Leader had already been elected by the Members of the Minority when they cast their votes for the contenders for the speakership.

Rep. Lagman concluded that Rep. Baguilat must perforce be recognized forthwith as the current Minority Leader and remarked that the procrastination to recognize him as such was utterly suspicious, if not downright anomalous.

INTERPELLATION OF REP. DAZA

Rep. Daza asked several clarificatory questions and read portions of Section 8, Rule II of the amended Provisional House Rules, as Rep. Lagman affirmed the following:

- 1) pages 18 and 14, respectively, of the just-approved Journal No. 1 of July 25, 2016 had correctly recorded (a) the votes cast for Reps. Alvarez, Baguilat, and Suarez and (b) the adoption of the Rules of the 16th Congress as provisional rules to govern the proceedings of the 17th Congress
- 2) the paragraphs under the aforementioned Section of the House Rules clearly state how the three groups of members of the House are determined, namely, the Majority, the Minority, and the “independent Members”; and what procedure should the latter follow if they opt to join the Majority or Minority.

Then advertent to a communication given to him earlier by a plenary page regarding the election of a Minority Leader at 10:00 a.m. of the following day,

July 27, 2016, Rep. Daza opined that such invitation is ridiculous and presumptuous and asked how can the independent members of the House constitute themselves into a Minority and arrogate unto themselves the prerogative to elect the Minority Leader. He expressed agreement that when Rep. Suarez voted for the winning Speaker, the latter became a member of the Majority and as such, the seven Members who voted for him to be, in effect, Minority Leader, became null and void.

As he alluded to the statements made by Majority Leader Fariñas the previous day regarding the provisions of Section 8, Rule II of the Provisional Rules of the House wherein those who voted against the winning Speaker or did not vote at all shall belong to the Minority, Rep. Daza stated that such manipulation of the Rules should be backed up. He said that under Section 161 of the Provisional House Rules, the parliamentary practices of the Philippine Assembly, the House of Representatives, the Senate and the Batasang Pambansa shall be supplementary to these rules. He then cited a precedent in the past Congress wherein of the three Members vying for the speakership, the winning candidate became the Speaker, the second vote-getter became the Minority Leader, and the third became an independent.

As President Rodrigo R. Duterte in his State of the Nation Address (SONA) impliedly urged the Members to take compassion of the cultural minorities, Rep. Daza stated that they should also take care of the election as Minority Leader of Rep. Baguilat, being an Ifugao cultural minority.

He opined that the copies of the invitation letter distributed to the independent Members passed through the House leadership and signified his intent to insert the same into the records. He then requested the Body to immediately act on the issue at hand considering that there would be a legislative paralysis unless the Committee on Rules is constituted with the Majority and the proper Minority. He enjoined his colleagues not to make alibis as they are serious, responsible and constructive lawmakers and to accept Rep. Baguilat as the new Minority Leader.

Rep. Lagman stated that his position is very clear in his speech and confirmed the statements made by Rep. Daza.

MANIFESTATION OF REP. ATIENZA

At this point, Rep. Jose L. Atienza Jr. sought recognition from the Chair.

REMARKS OF REP. BONDOC

As he begged the indulgence of Rep. Atienza, Rep. Juan Pablo “Rimpy” P. Bondoc stated that Reps. Tobias “Toby” M. Tiangco and Roque (H.) have previously registered their intent to interpellate Rep. Lagman.

REMARKS OF REP. ATIENZA

For proper appreciation of the issues being discussed, Rep. Atienza stated that he would like to clarify the issue on the noncontention of the rule on electing the Minority Leader.

REMARKS OF REP. TIANGCO

Upon recognition by the Chair, Rep. Tiangco yielded the floor to Rep. Atienza with the assurance that he would be the next interpellator.

MANIFESTATION OF REP. ROQUE

Upon query of Rep. Bondoc, Rep. Roque (H.) also yielded the floor to Rep. Atienza.

Thereafter, on motion of Rep. Bondoc, the Chair recognized Rep. Atienza for his manifestation.

MANIFESTATION OF REP. ATIENZA

At the outset, Rep. Atienza stated that in the 16th Congress, he had questioned the provision of Section 8, Rule II, of the Rules of the House but was overruled by the interpretation of the then Majority Leader. He pointed out that when he again questioned the interpretation of said Rule the previous day, Majority Leader Fariñas explained that the Members who voted for the winning candidate for the Speaker shall constitute the Majority and shall elect from among themselves the Majority Leader, while those who voted against the winning Speaker or did not vote at all shall belong to the Minority and would thereafter elect their Minority Leader which was approved by the Body. He said that the scheduled meeting the next day to elect the Minority Leader is in order as they cannot go by the traditional process which was followed in the past and which has always been questionable.

He thereupon expressed disagreement on the statements made by Reps. Daza and Lagman on having a new Minority Leader considering that they are discussing the Rules of the House. He asserted that the Minority members, together with those who abstained, will elect their Minority Leader and that the Members who came in second or third in the election for speakership of the House could run in the election as there is no automatic assumption of the position without due process as interpreted by the Majority Leader which was concurred by the Body.

Rep. Bondoc said that Rep. Atienza’s manifestation was well taken.

REMARKS OF REP. LAGMAN

Recognized by the Chair, Rep. Lagman disagreed that Rep. Atienza’s manifestation should be well taken by Rep. Bondoc. He maintained that the 20 Members who abstained from voting for the Speaker in the previous day’s session could have had the opportunity to elect the Minority Leader but they did not, and thus do not have the moral ascendancy to set a meeting for such an election. He added that he was ready to be interpellated by the next Member.

REMARKS OF REP. ATIENZA

Rep. Atienza, upon recognition by the Chair, maintained that Rep. Lagman should have earlier expressed his disagreement with the Rules of the House as enunciated by the Majority Leader in the previous day’s session during the election for the speakership. This, as he noted that no Member took the floor to inquire about or disagree with Majority Leader Fariñas’ remarks. He insisted that the members of the Minority proceed with the election of the Minority Leader as scheduled the following day, July 27, and enjoined his colleagues to respect the Rules as interpreted by the Majority Leader.

MANIFESTATION OF REP. DAZA

At this point, Rep. Daza manifested his desire to interpellate Rep. Atienza.

REMARKS OF REP. LAGMAN

Rep. Lagman stated that he still had the floor.

REMARKS OF REP. BONDOC

Rep. Bondoc clarified that the parliamentary status was that the Body was in the period of interpellations on the question of privilege of Rep. Lagman, and that it was Rep. Lagman’s prerogative to respond to Rep. Atienza’s manifestation.

REMARKS OF REP. DAZA

Rep. Daza, with due respect to Rep. Lagman, asked that he be allowed to proceed with his interpellation.

REMARKS OF REP. LAGMAN

Rep. Lagman maintained that the floor was still under his time and would not lend it until after he had relinquished it.

REMARKS OF REP. BONDOC

Rep. Bondoc restated that Rep. Lagman still had the floor.

REMARKS OF REP. DAZA

Rep. Daza maintained that there cannot be three Members standing on the floor. As he noted that Rep. Lagman had already taken his seat, he said that he sought permission to interpellate Rep. Atienza as a guest interpellator when the latter stood on the floor.

REMARKS OF REP. LAGMAN

Rep. Lagman emphasized that the floor was still under his time and that he would not lend it.

REMARKS OF REP. BONDOC

Rep. Bondoc clarified that the time was that of Rep. Lagman's. He noted that Rep. Daza yielded the floor after he was done interpellating Rep. Lagman, and that at present, it was Rep. Atienza who was interpellating Rep. Lagman.

REMARKS OF REP. DAZA

Rep. Daza thereafter asked for the ruling of the Chair with respect to the time of Rep. Lagman, this as he opined that the Committee on Rules could not interrupt a Member who has the floor.

SUSPENSION OF SESSION

The Chair motu proprio suspended the session at 6:26 p.m.

RESUMPTION OF SESSION

The session resumed at 6:31 p.m.

RULING OF THE CHAIR

The Chair ruled that Rep. Lagman still had the floor and would respond to Members who have manifested their desire to interpellate the former.

EXTENSION OF REP. LAGMAN'S TIME

On motion of Rep. Bondoc, there being no objection, the Body extended Rep. Lagman's time by 10 minutes.

The Chair thereafter recognized Rep. Tiangco for his interpellation, on motion of Rep. Bondoc.

INTERPELLATION OF REP. TIANGCO

After initially stating that he refused to sign the document that Rep. Daza had earlier alluded to because he considered it as a mere scrap of paper, Rep. Tiangco sought clarification that based on Section 8 of the Provisional Rules of the House, the Members who did not vote for the Majority nor the Minority cannot claim to be belonging to the latter as they are merely independents until such time that they are accepted by either of the two blocs. Considering that the Committee on Rules is presently composed only of the Majority, he inquired why the Majority was distributing such kind of paper as he cited the allegation of Rep. Edgar R. Erice that someone from the Committee on Rules wanted him to receive it.

Rep. Lagman surmised that this was consistent with the reports that the "super" Majority is lending out some of its members to elect a coopted Minority whom he called as the "Majority's Minority Leader."

With respect to Rep. Tiangco's reference to page 19 of Journal No. 1 of July 2013 wherein the 16th Congress ruled that Rep. Feliciano Belmonte Jr. was elected as Speaker of the House after garnering 244 votes, which was the highest number of votes cast, with the second place in the voting automatically becoming the Minority Leader, Rep. Lagman affirmed that the rulings of the Chair are considered as part of the Rules of the House. He further clarified that insofar as the previous day's opinion of Majority Leader Fariñas in response to Rep. Atienza's query was concerned, this was the Majority Leader's own personal opinion and not the ruling of the Chair. He underscored that there was no need to make any interpretation of the Rules because they are clear.

Subsequently, the two Members agreed that a mere opinion cannot supersede a ruling that happened in the 16th Congress; the provision of the Rules is clear that Members who chose not to align themselves with the Majority or the Minority shall be considered as independent Members of the House and may later, upon written request, choose to join either the Majority or Minority; and that based on Section 8, Rule II of the amended Provisional House Rules, the Minority Leader is Rep. Baguilat.

To Rep. Tiangco's last query as to why Rep. Baguilat was not being recognized as the Minority Leader, Rep. Lagman said that there might be a hidden agenda to elect another Minority Leader which the Body should not allow because this would mean bastardizing the process of selecting a Minority Leader.

On motion of Rep. Bondoc, the Chair recognized Rep. Roque (H.) for his interpellation.

INTERPELLATION OF REP. ROQUE (H.)

To the initial query of Rep. Roque, Rep. Lagman replied in the affirmative that Section 11, Rule III of the amended Provisional House Rules provides that the officers who shall be elected at the commencement of the session shall only include the Speaker, six Deputy Speakers, Secretary General and the Sergeant-at-Arms and that the same was included in yesterday's Order of Business. He also pointed out that although the election of the Minority Leader was not expressly indicated in the aforesaid provision of the House Rules, it is found in another portion of the Rules which provides that the Minority Leader is the one who gets the second highest number of votes after the Speaker-elect.

On another query, Rep. Lagman confirmed that the first paragraph of Section 8 provides that all those who voted for the eventual winner as Speaker will constitute the Majority while the second paragraph of the same Section with regard to the election of a Minority Leader is virtually a dead provision because it has not been followed by the House. He cited in particular his election as Minority Leader in the 15th Congress where he had automatically assumed the position without any election from the members of the Minority. In the same token, he said that Rep. Zamora (R.) assumed the position as Minority Leader in the 16th Congress where there was no election between him and former Rep. Romualdez. He said that Section 8 of the Rules shall operate if there was no clear-cut second-placer but in the previous day's election for the speakership, he noted that the Rule should not operate.

Considering that the Members have unanimously adopted as its Provisional Rules the House Rules of the 16th Congress, Rep. Roque inquired why the Members did not omit the said dead provision from the Rules. Rep. Lagman said that the particular provision has been obliterated by consistent practice and that there are some provisions which are dead provisions that should not be resurrected. He explained that there is no need to elect a Minority Leader in the case of the election of Speaker the previous day because the 15 Members who constituted the Minority came from Rep. Baguilat's group of eight and the seven belonging to Rep. Suarez' group. He disclosed that the attempt of those who abstained to become members of the Minority is barred by the last provision of Section 8, Rule II which makes them to be independent Members. He stated that they can only become members of the Minority if they apply for membership in the Minority and their application is approved by the Minority Leader.

As to the reason why he did not object to the previous day's ruling of the Majority Leader on who shall constitute the Members of the Minority, Rep. Lagman replied that what transpired the previous day was the election of the Speaker and it was not the proper forum for discussing the issue of the Minority Leader. He added that the statements of Rep. Fariñas was only a "remarks" as stated in the Journal of the House and therefore, they should not waste time debating on mere remarks.

Rep. Roque stated that if Rep. Lagman should consider the said statement as being contrary to the Rules, he should have made the corresponding point of order because that is the remedy for an unprocedural statement or act of any Member.

Rep. Lagman said that he did not rise to contradict yesterday's remarks of Rep. Fariñas because (1) it was a mere "remarks" and therefore would not be controlling to the House; and (2) the proper forum for the case at hand was that day and not yesterday.

Rep. Roque expressed confusion on the different stand of Rep. Lagman on the said provision which the latter wanted to obliterate instead of adopting a construction on whether those who abstain shall be considered part of the Minority or part of the Independent bloc. He then inquired whether the correct interpretation of the present Section 8 is that Members who voted for the winning candidate shall constitute the Majority and those who did not vote for the winning Speaker do not form part of the Majority.

Rep. Lagman said that Rep. Roque was quoting him out of context and explained that he did not ask for the obliteration of the second paragraph of Section 8 but it was by practice that said section has been obliterated. He maintained that there is no need to make any construction or interpretation thereof unless there is a hidden agenda.

As to what provision of the Rules did it mention that abstention votes do not form part of the Minority, Rep. Lagman quoted the last paragraph of Section 8 which reads as follows: "Members who choose not to align themselves with the Majority or the Minority shall be considered as independent Members of the House. He pointed out that these Members are neither Members of the Majority or the Minority. In case they wanted to change their status, he cited the remaining provision of said paragraph which provides that, "...They may, however, choose to join the Majority or the Minority upon written request to and approval thereof of the Majority or Minority, as the case may be."

On the contention of Rep. Roque (H.) that said provision did not mention about the Members who abstained from the voting, Rep. Lagman explained that there is no need to mention it because during a voting, one may either vote in favor of the proposition or for the motion, vote against the proposition or motion, or abstain; but, an abstention on the part of the one abstaining is a resolution that he is not going to make a stand or a vote.

Asked to cite a precedent or a Supreme Court ruling that an abstention is not a vote for the Minority, Rep. Lagman replied that there is definitely a precedent on the matter. He however opined that the Supreme Court would not make a decision in this regard.

In the absence of a ruling or a construction by the highest tribunal that the vote of abstention is or is not a vote for the Minority, Rep. Roque opined that all matters affecting organization of the House are internal matters that should be resolved by its Members.

As to the party affiliation of the Member who was claiming to be the Minority Leader, Rep. Lagman replied that said Member is from the Liberal Party with the status of Minority Member.

To another query, Rep. Lagman explained that the coalition agreement entered into by the Liberal Party in the House with the ruling PDP-Laban Party was not an official authorization from the Liberal Party. He explained that some Members of the Liberal Party in the House refused to join and opted to be Liberal Party Members of the Minority.

On whether he would like to elect as Minority Leader a member of the Liberal Party that is in coalition with the ruling Party and the Majority in the House, Rep. Lagman replied that he did not utter such words and that Rep. Roque should not speak on his behalf. What he said was that Rep. Baguilat is a member of the Liberal Party but with the status of Minority in the House.

As to where can Rep. Roque find the so-called status of his alleged Minority Leader, Rep. Lagman replied that the Members of the Liberal Party in the House have discussed in its meeting that some Members would remain as Minority Members.

On whether said status of a Member is found in the Rules of the House, Rep. Lagman replied that said status is not defined in the House Rules because not everything should be in the rules.

On motion of Rep. Bondoc, the Chair recognized Rep. Rolando G. Andaya Jr. for his interpellation.

INTERPELLATION OF REP. ANDAYA

Reps. Andaya and Lagman discussed Section 8 of the Rules and both agreed that said section talks about the Majority and Minority and does not talk purely about the election of the Majority Leader, the Speaker or the Minority Leader; and that said provision can apply even to the last day of the session when the Members choose to exercise their right to transfer from one side to another. They likewise agreed on what is stated in the first paragraph, to wit: "Members who vote for the winning candidate for Speaker shall constitute the Majority in the House and shall elect amongst themselves the Majority Leader who may be changed at any time by a majority vote of all the Majority Members." Moreover, in applying the principles of statutory construction, both agreed that the first paragraph clearly delineates who the Members of the Minority are, with those who did not vote for the winning candidate, subject to the qualification of the last paragraph of said Section which says that Members who choose not to align themselves with the Majority or the Minority shall be considered as independent Members of the House.

Thereafter, Reps. Andaya and Lagman argued on the second paragraph of Section 8 with regard to surplusage and the election of a Minority Leader, with the latter reiterating the points he raised during the previous interpellations.

INTERPELLATION OF REP. VILLARIN

Recognized by the Chair, Rep. Tom S. Villarin said that being a neophyte lawmaker, he wanted to be clear on certain matters. In response to the queries, Rep. Lagman explained that: (1) by tradition, a Speaker is elected from the party of the winning administration or the winning President; (2) there were instances in the past that the party of the President including its allies dominated the House of Representatives in terms of representation in the Majority; and (3) there would be adverse effects in the fulfillment of the mandate of Congress as a democratic institution assuming that a supermajority would undermine the independence of the Minority. They agreed that the Members are the ones who should first practice democracy, being the lawmakers of the land.

Thereafter, Rep. Villarín underscored that as the Members practiced democracy in electing the Speaker, he expressed belief that the next highest votes should be construed as the votes for the Minority Leader and that the House should respect, recognize and promote the rights of the Minority. He then reiterated his confusion as he remarked that those who had voted for Rep. Suarez or who had abstained had already made their choice in the previous day's session; and asked why another election was being called.

Rep. Lagman thanked his colleague for being steadfast in fighting for democratic practices in the House.

REMARKS OF REP. LAGMAN

At this point, Rep. Lagman asked that Rep. Rodante D. Marcoleta make a manifestation instead of an interpellation because he could not stand any longer due to his recent knee operation.

MANIFESTATION OF REP. MARCOLETA

Recognized by the Chair upon Rep. Bondoc's motion, Rep. Marcoleta opined that those who cast a vote of abstention had decided that they did not want to vote and had chosen to be neutral; asked for the basis for the new election; and said that the issue at hand was one of simple arithmetic. He remarked that under the Labor Code, management should not have anything to do with employee unions; and that the Majority Leader's opinion on what happens to those who had abstained, could not override the last paragraph of Section 8, Rule II. He pointed out that the House Rules was what was important; the previous day's election had already been conducted and the call for a new election had no basis. He adverted to Section 161, Rule XXV that the parliamentary practices of the Philippine Assembly, House of Representatives, Senate, and Batasang Pambansa shall be suppletory as he observed that the Member who receives the second highest number of votes for the speakership traditionally and automatically becomes the Minority Leader.

As he moved to recognize Rep. Roque, Rep. Bondoc clarified that Rep. Lagman had taken his seat not because he refused to answer any more questions but because of his medical condition; and that the other Members who wished to interpellate him had agreed to just make manifestations.

MANIFESTATION OF REP. ROQUE (H.)

Rep. Roque explained that the call for a new election was to insure that those who did not vote for the Minority Leader would be able to vote for him so as to uphold the system of checks and balances in a democracy.

MANIFESTATION OF REP. ATIENZA

Rep. Atienza opined that the arguments of Reps. Lagman and Marcoleta were not in accordance with democracy and the Rules of the House. He explained that the abnormal practice of past Congresses should end such that the Minority Leader should be elected only by the members of the Minority. He stressed that the issue was not one of personalities, friendships, and loyalties but of the Rules and of democracy which should be defended. He pointed out that what the House elected the previous day was a Speaker and that it did not elect a Minority Leader.

MANIFESTATION OF REP. ERICE

Upon recognition by the Chair, Rep. Erice said he was surprised to receive the invitation for the aforesaid election from Members who were the first to sign a coalition agreement with Speaker Alvarez.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY OF REP. ERICE

Rep. Erice thereafter inquired on the source of the invitation, considering that he received it from the staff of the Committee on Rules.

TERMINATION OF THE TIME GRANTED TO REP. LAGMAN

Majority Leader Fariñas surmised that Rep. Erice was going to interpellate Rep. Lagman, and maintained that raising a parliamentary inquiry at the moment meant following the wrong procedure.

Thereafter and upon motion of Rep. Fariñas, there being no objection, the Body terminated the time granted to Rep. Lagman.

REFERRAL OF REP. LAGMAN'S SPEECH

On motion of Majority Leader Fariñas, there being no objection, the Body referred Rep. Lagman's question of privilege to the Committee on Rules.

REMARKS OF MAJORITY LEADER FARIÑAS

As he noted Rep. Erice's desire to raise a parliamentary question, Rep. Fariñas first reacted to the exchange of debates between Reps. Daza and Atienza because his name was dragged therein, and opined that it was Rep. Daza who was making an alibi or palusot.

Rep. Fariñas initially alluded to the previous day's session when Rep. Atienza clearly wanted to rise and pose questions but was prevailed upon by the Majority Leader to allow the Body to finish first with the nominations for the Speaker of the House. He recalled that the only position that was aspired for was for the Speaker and not the Minority Leader, this as he emphasized that Reps. Suarez and Baguilat both ran for the speakership.

Thereafter, Rep. Fariñas referred to Journal No. 1 of the previous day's session wherein Rep. Atienza raised a parliamentary inquiry as to who would elect the Minority Leader of the House. This, as he noted that no Member had objected to the approval of said Journal earlier in the session. He also pointed out that during the previous session, after he had responded to Rep. Atienza's parliamentary inquiry by citing Section 8 of the Provisional Rules of the House on membership to the Majority and the Minority, as well as the election of their respective Majority and Minority Leaders, the Members had the opportunity to object to his opinion as the Majority Leader.

As he emphasized that the position that was aspired for in the previous day's session was the speakership of the House, he stressed that the Body did not pursue the election of the Minority Leader, and that Rep. Baguilat did not run therefor. He added that Reps. Baguilat and Suarez ran against Speaker Alvarez but lost.

Rep. Fariñas asked what subterfuge or palusot was being done by the Majority. He stated that the Members participated in the election of the Speaker, and that as provided by the Rules of the House, those who did not vote for the Speaker would constitute the Minority and would thereafter elect their Minority Leader. He added that the aforementioned 20 Members abstained from and did not participate in the voting process for the Speaker, and could have participated in the election of the Minority Leader had it been so mentioned.

A law or regulation is not repealed by the non-observance thereof, Rep. Fariñas underscored, as it can only be repealed by an express repeal. He said that under the Constitution, each House of Congress shall promulgate its own Rules that would become part of the law of the land. He maintained that traditions, customs and usages would apply only in the absence of an applicable law.

Subsequently, Rep. Fariñas referred to the stenographic transcripts of the previous day's session, and quoted the exchange of remarks between Rep. Atienza and himself on the definition of Majority and Minority Members. He reiterated that any Member could have then objected to his opinion as Majority Leader; the issue of electing the Minority Leader was not taken up on the floor the previous day; and Rep. Baguilat ran and lost for the speakership of the House. He asked whether it is democratic to claim that the Member who garnered the second highest number of vote, which in this case was eight, should be proclaimed as the Minority Leader. He thereafter underscored that while everybody is entitled to his own opinion, his opinion as the Majority Leader was supported by the Members, this as he noted that nobody supported Rep. Lagman's opinion.

With respect to the distribution of invitations to the Members of the Minority regarding the election of Minority Leader the following day, Rep. Fariñas explained that as the Majority Leader and chairperson of the Committee on Rules, nothing happens in the Plenary Hall without his permission. He said that he merely honored the request of the Minority to have the invitations distributed. He asked whether Rep. Lagman was afraid of the conduct of an election for the Minority Leader. He added that as the Majority respects the Minority, the latter should also show its respect.

Pursuing his point, he emphasized that those who did not vote for the Speaker would belong to the Minority, regardless of whether they voted for Rep. Suarez or Rep. Baguilat for the Speaker, and would now have to vote their own Minority Leader. He asked how the eight and seven votes plus the 20 abstentions totaling 35 can have a leader who garnered merely seven or eight votes.

Thereafter, Rep. Fariñas cited the provisions of Section 8 of the House Rules one by one, particularly on the definition of Majority; election of Majority Leader and Minority Leader, and Deputy Majority and Minority Leaders; transfer of membership from Majority to Minority, or vice versa; the definition of an independent Member; and Committee assignments and memberships.

He maintained that a Member cannot be forced to vote for the Speaker, but the provision of the House Rules is very clear that a Member who does not vote for the winning Speaker will be part of the Minority, this as he stressed that the Journal of the House had already been approved by the Body.

ADJOURNMENT OF SESSION

On motion of Majority Leader Fariñas, there being no objection, the Chair declared the session adjourned until four o'clock in the afternoon of Wednesday, July 27, 2016.

It was 8:00 p.m.

I hereby certify to the correctness of the foregoing.
