QUESTION OF PRIVILEGE OF REPRESENTATIVE MANGUDADATU (Z.)

Representative Mangudadatu acknowledged the presence in the Session Hall of the families and relatives of 58 individuals who were killed in the town of Ampatuan in Maguindanao in 2009 in order to prevent his brother's filing of candidacy for the governorship of said province. He said that the massacre was the most tragic and horrific in said town, was one of the worst acts of political violence in Philippine history, and was an event where the largest number of journalists were ever slain in a single day.

He then stressed that eight years had passed but justice remains elusive as the trial of the cases filed against the crime's perpetrators and their cohorts takes a slow pace and amidst reports of court irregularities and bribery of government prosecutors. He expressed hope that through President Rodrigo Roa Duterte's Administrative Order No. 1 which provides for a presidential task force to look into media killings in the country including the Maguindanao massacre, justice would finally prevail.

Representative Mangudadatu then stated that he had filed a bill to commemorate November 23 as a National Day of Mourning, and as he reiterated his call for justice and the conviction of the masterminds and culprits concerned, he enumerated the names of several individuals both from the private and government sectors and thanked them for providing aid, accommodation, and protection for the victims and their families as well as the witnesses of the massacre.

INTERPELLATION OF REPRESENTATIVE ZARATE

Rep. Zarate, whom the Chair recognized upon Representative Pimentel's motion, discussed with Representative Mangudadatu (Z.) the status of the cases filed against the perpetrators of the Maguindanao massacre; the number of individuals that were arrested, still at-large, and remained in jail; and the state of impunity in the country.

On how the Body could help attain justice for the victims of the massacre, Representative Mangudadatu sought an investigation on the slow progress of the trials. On the other hand, Representative Zarate stressed the need to urgently pass a pending bill that expands the witness protection program as he relayed the Makabayan Bloc's solidarity with all victims of impunity.

REFERRAL OF REPRESENTATIVE MANGUDADATU'S (Z.) PRIVILEGE SPEECH

On motion of Representative Pimentel, there being no objection, the Body referred Representative Mangudadatu's privilege speech to the Committee on Rules.

Subsequently, on motion of Representative Bondoc, the Chair recognized Rep. Kaka J. Bag-ao for her sponsorship speech.

SPONSORSHIP SPEECH OF REPRESENTATIVE BAG-AO

Representative Bag-ao initially adverted to the report of the Joint United Nations Programme on HIV/AIDS about the increase of HIV cases in the Philippines. Thereupon, she explained that House Bill No. 6617 was introduced in replacement of the 20-year old Philippine AIDS Prevention and Control Act of 1998. She also pointed out that the proposed measure introduces the following reforms: restructuring of the legal framework on HIV and AIDS; clarification of the roles and responsibilities of different stakeholders; creation of an HIV and AIDS roadmap with clear strategies, targets, and funding; and strengthening of information dissemination, education, and stigma reduction mechanisms of the law which guarantees that the country's HIV and AIDS response is premised on the respect, recognition, and promotion of human rights and dignity.
