With 199 affirmative votes, seven negative votes, and no abstentions, the Body approved on Third Reading House Bill No. 6908.

EXPLANATIONS OF VOTE

The following Members explained their votes:

1. Representative Brosas, speaking in Filipino, voted against the measure because it will not end contractualization but will only legalize the principal-contractor-employer scheme. She added that the Bill also intends to remove the recognition of so-called “necessary and desirable” workers which allows capitalists to avoid regularizing them. She added that the token provisions on giving more workers benefits, banning discontinuous employment, and shortening probationary periods cannot address the issue of widespread layoffs and tortuous absence of job security.
2. Representative Casilao voted against the measure because first, it falls short of addressing contractualization despite placing requirements for the registration and accreditation of job contractors. Second, the removal of the provision on the regularization of necessary and desirable workers, is a step backward for the achievements of the labor sector on the issue of work regularization. He added that the Bill’s requirements and penalties for labor-only contracting are also inutile because majority of big businesses, who are prone to go around the law in order to make profit, are behind such a practice.
3. Representative Lagman voted for the measure as he stressed that stamping out irregular contractualization and the pernicious practice of end-of-contract (“endo”) is long overdue. He however asked that a Bicameral Conference Committee address the following: 1) the plugging or deletion of the Bill’s loopholes; 2) inclusion of provisions to protect workers from illegal dismissal, such as constructive dismissal; 3) regularization of repeatedly rehired project employees; 4) the jurisdiction to award moral and other damages to illegally-dismissed workers, by the National Labor Relations Commission and competent regular courts; and 5) imprisonment of, in addition to imposition of fines to erring employers in accordance with the principle of malum prohibitum.

4. Representative Zarate voted in the negative as he stressed that the instant measure will not end labor contractualization. He pointed out that it contained many provisions that businessmen—who have been violating workers’ rights and bleeding them dry for profits—could easily circumvent. He added that the Bill’s removal of the term “necessary and desirable” in the classification of workers will only encourage further labor contractualization.
5. Voting in the affirmative, Representative Atienza said that the Bill will be the first step in protecting the labor force from abuse and will give the government more control over contractualization. Nevertheless, he expressed hope about the Sponsors’ promise that the measure was a response to the over-all problem of casual employment not only in the private but also the public sector. He stressed that it was time for the government to give permanent status to its employees who have been working as casuals for decades and that he intends to follow it through with a law that will attend to civil servants who are also being taken advantage of by the government.

With 212 affirmative votes, no negative votes, and no abstentions, the Body approved on Third Reading House Bill No. 6971.

PRIVILEGE HOUR

It being a Monday, on motion of Representative Defensor, there being no objection, the Chair declared a Privilege Hour and thereafter recognized Rep. Arnolfo "Arnie" A. Teves Jr. for his privilege speech.

PRIVILEGE SPEECH OF REPRESENTATIVE TEVES

Representative Teves spoke about temporary restraining orders (TROs) that were allegedly being traded in the courts and explained how such kind of corruption often led to further corruption. In particular, he questioned the past and future issuance of TROs by several justices of the Court of Appeals in certain cases including a case that he filed against the incumbent governor of Negros Oriental. As he denounced such acts, he challenged the media to be vigilant and the Supreme Court to be responsive, as well as reminded President Rodrigo Roa Duterte about his continued fight to end corruption in government.

At this juncture, Deputy Speaker Cayetano relinquished the Chair to Deputy Speaker Linabelle Ruth R. Villarica.

On motion of Representative Defensor, the Chair recognized Rep. Anthony M. Bravo, Ph.D. for his privilege speech.

PRIVILEGE SPEECH OF REPRESENTATIVE BRAVO (A.)

Representative Bravo pointed out that it was difficult to secure on-line appointment schedules for passport application/renewal in the Department of Foreign Affairs (DFA) allegedly due to the hoarding and selling of such schedules by several syndicates. He said that DFA Secretary Alan Peter S. Cayetano has denied the allegation and explained that the DFA only opens slots for passport applications every three months to ensure the security of its website.

Citing past problems such as the printing of defective passports and illegal subcontracting of e-passports, Representative Bravo enumerated the recommendations of the House after it had conducted a probe on the persistent delay in the issuance of passports. He asked what security issues are triggered if it opens application schedules for six months instead of three months; and whether the three-month limitation in passport application was due to the activities of fixers who had contacts inside the DFA.

At this juncture, Deputy Speaker Villarica relinquished the Chair to Deputy Speaker Cayetano.

After showing a video presentation of the long lines of passport applicants in the DFA office in Pasay City, Representative Bravo urged the DFA to fix the problem as soon as possible.

MANIFESTATION OF DEPUTY SPEAKER CAYETANO

Whereupon, Deputy Speaker Cayetano manifested that inasmuch as her brother is the Secretary of the DFA, she would personally deliver to him a copy of Representative Bravo's (A.) speech. She commented that in the aforesaid video, the passport applicants were not pre-cleared and exceeded the day's limit of 500 clients. She added that the DFA website has posted information on the status of the passport problem and the Secretary gave his assurance about immediately solving the matter.

REFERRAL OF REPRESENTATIVES BRAVO (A.) AND TEVES' PRIVILEGE SPEECHES

On motion of Representative Defensor, there being no objection, the Body referred Representatives Bravo and Teves' privilege speeches to the Committee on Rules for its appropriate action.

On further motion of Representative Defensor, the Chair recognized Representative Casilao for his privilege speech.

PRIVILEGE SPEECH OF REPRESENTATIVE CASILAO

Representative Casilao first said that the Kilusang Magbubukid ng Pilipinas (KMP) recently joined the commemoration of the 31st anniversary of the Mendiola massacre, which tragedy occurred on the same day that Republic Act (R. A.) No. 6657 or the Comprehensive Agrarian Reform Program (CARP) was approved in response to the clamor of the farmers for genuine agrarian reform. He then stressed that since the expiration of CARP in June 2014, the government was unable to fulfill its promise to provide farmers with their own land and to uplift their living conditions. He said that farmers from Eastern Visayas will march to Manila next month to launch a campaign for higher prices for abaca, palay, and coconut; and to seek help about pest problems and military operations in their region.

Thereupon, Representative Casilao stressed that the peasant sector continued to suffer from the primary problem of land ownership; and that this was exacerbated by landlord-tenant relationships, usurious practices, low prices of agricultural products, and the high cost of farm machineries.

He likewise condemned the extra-judicial killings of farmers under the Duterte Administration by members of the Armed Forces of the Philippines (AFP) as he stressed their (1) opposition to such killings, the all-out war policy, and labor contractualization, and (2) support for the resumption of peace talks with the National Democratic Front of the Philippines.

Representative Casilao subsequently asked Congress to enact House Bill No. 555 or the Genuine Agrarian Reform Bill (GARB), otherwise known as the Free Land Distribution Bill, and to conduct an inquiry into resolutions he filed on human rights violations in the peasant sector.

REFERRAL OF REPRESENTATIVE CASILAO'S PRIVILEGE SPEECH

Thereupon, on motion of Representative Defensor, there being no objection, the Body referred the privilege speech of Representative Casilao to the Committee on Rules for its appropriate action.

Likewise, on motion of Representative Defensor, the Chair recognized Rep. France L. Castro for her privilege speech.

PRIVILEGE SPEECH OF REPRESENTATIVE CASTRO (F.L.)

Representative Castro decried the political harassment of Alliance of Concerned Teachers (ACT) NCR Union President Jocelyn "Ma'am Joy" Martinez by three policemen in civilian clothes, while she was holding a class in Imelda Elementary School in Malabon City. She said that such actions could also be considered as attacks against the other members of the union.

Representative Castro then stressed that said harassment of a known critic of anti-teacher policies will not stop ACT-NCR Union from fighting for the rights, welfare, and benefits of the teaching sector. She called on all teachers and unionists to remain vigilant, stand on their ground, and continue to advance their legitimate demands.

REFERRAL OF REPRESENTATIVE CASTRO'S (F.L.) PRIVILEGE SPEECH

On motion of Representative Defensor, there being no objection, the Body referred Representative Castro's privilege speech to the Committee on Rules for its appropriate action.

On further motion of Representative Defensor, the Chair recognized Rep. Sarah Jane I. Elago to deliver her privilege speech.

PRIVILEGE SPEECH OF REPRESENTATIVE ELAGO

Representative Elago spoke about how the youth could contribute for a wider discourse on the Administration's push for charter change. She cited the heroes and revolutionaries of the nation who taught the essence of liberty and freedom and their struggle for democracy and development; and said that there can be no more fitting way for the youth to honor the former than to pledge their commitment to genuine social change.

She then said the youth have remained brave, resilient, and active in the face of many issues such as labor contractualization, underemployment, and hazardous working conditions as well as lack of access to education, high tuition fees, and repression in the campus. She called on them to intensify their awareness and organization as well as their assistance of marginalized and oppressed sectors; and support the forthcoming national days of action for free education, human rights, justice, national sovereignty, territorial integrity, and peace.

Finally, she called on the House Committee on Higher and Technical Education to investigate reports on the implementation and use of funds for the current academic year's free tuition policy; noted that R.A. No. 10931 or the Universal Access to Quality Tertiary Education Act does not prohibit the collection of surprise and additional school fees; and enjoined her colleagues and other public servants to undertake their tasks with a sense of nationalism and oppose control by foreign powers.

REFERRAL OF REPRESENTATIVE ELAGO'S PRIVILEGE SPEECH

On motion of Representative Defensor, there being no objection, the Body referred Representative Elago's privilege speech to the Committee on Rules for its appropriate action.

TERMINATION OF THE PRIVILEGE HOUR

On motion of Representative Defensor, there being no objection, the Body terminated the Privilege Hour.

TRANSMITTAL TO THE SENATE OF HOUSE BILLS

On motion of Representative Defensor, there being no objection, the Chair directed the Secretary General to immediately transmit to the Senate, copies of the House Bills that had been approved on Third Reading.

ADJOURNMENT OF SESSION

On motion of Representative Defensor, there being no objection, the Chair declared the session adjourned until four o'clock in the afternoon of Tuesday, January 30, 2018.

It was 6:24 p.m.

I hereby certify to the correctness of the foregoing.
