Pursuant to Section 151, Rule XXIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives, transmitting the Subpoena Duces Tecum dated 28 November 2016 issued by Ray Patrick M. Arce, Assistant Special Prosecutor I, re: Crim. Case Nos. SB-16-CRM-0417 to 0420 and Crim. Case Nos. SB-16-CRM-0421 to 0424, directing Ms. Elena B. Ramos, Committee Secretary, Committee on Appropriations, House of Representatives, to submit within ten (10) days from receipt of this subpoena the certified true copy from the original of the following documents:

2. Letter of Reno G. Lim to Jose C. De Venecia dated 21 November 2007 re: PDAF.

INSERTION OF REP. VILLARICA'S SPEECH

On motion of Rep. Juan Pablo "Rimpy" P. Bondoc, there being no objection, the Body approved to insert into the Records of the House the sponsorship speech of Rep. Linabelle Ruth R. Villarica, Chairperson of the Committee on Foreign Affairs, regarding House Bill No. 4767 on expanding the validity of Philippine passports, which the Body had approved on Second Reading the previous day.

Thereafter, on motion of Rep. Cristina "Chiqui" Roa-Puno, the Chair recognized Rep. Kaka J. Bag-ao on a question of personal and collective privilege.

QUESTION OF PRIVILEGE OF REP. BAG-AO

Speaking in Filipino, Rep. Bag-ao stressed the need for Filipinos to educate themselves about each other in order to foster understanding and unity and guard against discrimination. She pointed out that as the principal author of a measure seeking protection against discrimination, there was no better occasion to rise and join Muslims and non-Muslims from all sectors and genders, cultures, faiths, ages, and social status—especially victims of discrimination—than on World Hijab Day which was celebrated on February 1 of every year. Speaking as a community worker, she said that her recent immersion in Basilan taught her about what people had in common and how they could accept and understand their differences. She explained that the hijab or Muslim veil symbolized not only women empowerment but also religious and cultural discrimination. She said that Filipinos had a responsibility to know more about their brother Muslims and indigenous peoples as part of their national identity.

In ending her speech, Rep. Bag-ao asked for her colleagues' support and thanked Rep. Sitti Djalila A. Turabin-Hataman for inspiring her about learning more about other sectors of society.

MANIFESTATION OF REP. TURABIN-HATAMAN

Recognized by the Chair, Rep. Turabin-Hataman likewise expressed her gratitude to Rep. Bag-ao for bringing forth the advocacy of the World Hijab Day and of discrimination; standing up on behalf of Muslims; and teaching Filipinos to learn more about their sisters and brothers from different cultures.

REFERRAL OF REP. BAG-AO'S SPEECH

Thereupon, on motion of Rep. Roa-Puno, there being no objection, the Body referred the speech of Rep. Bag-ao to the Committee on Rules.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF GUESTS

Thereafter, Rep. Roa-Puno acknowledged the presence in the Session Hall of guests of Rep. Bag-ao.

MOTION OF REP. ROA-PUNO

Rep. Roa-Puno then moved for the resumption of consideration on Second Reading of House Bill No. 4727; but before the Body could act on the motion, the Chair recognized Rep. Jose L. Atienza Jr.

REMARKS OF REP. ATIENZA

Rep. Atienza reiterated a request he made on the floor two weeks earlier for the House leadership to name the three Members identified as drug coddlers or drug lords by Speaker Pantaleon D. Alvarez, before the consideration of House Bill No. 4727. He invoked the principles of clarity, transparency, and fairness for the sake of the Chamber as well as the public; stressed that a cloud of suspicion hovered all of the Members as long as the matter was kept secret; and pointed out that the Body was going to discuss a very important measure.

With the permission of the Chair, Majority Leader Rodolfo C. Fariñas clarified that (1) it was President Rodrigo Roa Duterte who gave Speaker Alvarez a list containing the names of Members of Congress as well as other elected officials, foreign nationals, civilians, and government employees allegedly linked to the drug menace; (2) the Speaker passed on the list to him; (3) the list did not identify any drug lord but merely mentioned drug protectors; and a Member who was mistakenly included in the list was already removed therefrom. He stressed that it was more proper and prudent to first conduct a discreet inquiry thereon as it was not a matter of public accusation but of intelligence reports and because it was unfair to name the Members without giving them the opportunity for rebuttal.

Rep. Fariñas then informed the Body that the following day, he will go over the list together with Philippine Drug Enforcement Agency (PDEA) Director General Isidro Lapeña and Philippine National Police (PNP) Director General Roland "Bato" Dela Rosa; and then file the necessary charges in the Committee on Ethics if there was basis to do so. He however clarified that the jurisdiction of the Committee on Ethics only applied to acts committed in the present Congress; and that there was no formal complaint as of yet but only an alleged list of drug protectors that had to be further verified. He also assured Rep. Atienza that before the voting on House Bill No. 4727, he will reveal the names of the Members involved if there was basis to do so.

Rep. Atienza requested for an assurance that the names of the three Members shall be revealed even during the discussion of House Bill No. 4727. He stated that the leadership of the House should clean the name of the institution as Congress should be respected and their law-making functions should be appreciated; and if their names are tainted, they will not be able to accomplish anything.

Rep. Fariñas gave the assurance that he would reveal the names of the involved Members when the right time comes.

QUERY OF REP. DAZA

Upon recognition by the chair, Rep. Raul A. Daza first sought clarification on the jurisdiction of the Committee on Ethics. Majority Leader Fariñas explained that under the amended House Rules, Committee-issued rules were presumed to be of the House if they were not in contradiction to the former; and that under the rules of the Committee on Ethics, its jurisdiction was limited to acts committed in the current Congress.

Rep. Daza then asked whether the alleged acts committed by the aforementioned three Members occurred before they became Members of Congress. Replying that he had no knowledge thereon, Rep. Fariñas said that he was going to meet with the PDEA and PNP leadership to learn about the same and to determine if the allegations had any basis at all.

MOTION OF REP. BONDOC

Subsequently, Rep. Bondoc moved for the resumption of consideration on Second Reading of House Bill No. 4727; but before the Body could act on the motion, the Chair recognized Rep. Atienza anew.

MOTION OF REP. ATIENZA

Rep. Atienza moved for the calling of the Roll as he stated that a quorum must be established before the Body could discuss any matter. He pointed out that only 102 Members were present while 147 Members were needed to establish a quorum.

With the permission of the Chair, Majority Leader Fariñas stated that the debate on House Bill No. 4727 was going to start early because 50 Members had enlisted as interpellators thereon. He pointed out that the Body could suspend consideration of the Bill if Rep. Atienza wanted to discuss it only when there was a quorum; however, it will not have enough time to accommodate said Members. He explained that the House leadership wanted everybody to express their views even if the House Rules provide that the period of debate on a measure could already be closed after three Members each have already spoken for and against it.

Insisting on a Roll Call, Rep. Atienza said that the Rules of the House provide that the Body could not discuss any measure without the presence of a quorum.

SUSPENSION OF SESSION

The Chair suspended the session at 4:40 p.m., upon motion of Majority Leader Fariñas.

RESUMPTION OF SESSION

The session resumed at 4:55 p.m.

With 217 Members responding to the Call, the Chair declared the presence of a quorum. (See also Appendix 1)

MANIFESTATION OF REP. ATIENZA

Recognized by the Chair, Rep. Atienza stated that according to his counters in the gallery, 196 Members were present in the Session Hall. He stressed that although the Body had a quorum despite the erroneous count made by the Secretariat, he wanted to ensure honesty in the count on the floor.

The Chair took note of the same.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS: COMMITTEE REPORT NO. 47 ON HOUSE BILL NO. 4727

On motion of Rep. Bondoc, there being no objection, the Body then resumed consideration on Second Reading of House Bill No. 4727, as embodied in Committee Report No. 47 and reported out by the Committee on Justice.

Upon direction of the Chair, the Secretary General read the title of the Bill, to wit:

“AN ACT IMPOSING THE DEATH PENALTY ON CERTAIN HEINOUS CRIMES, REPEALING FOR THE PURPOSE REPUBLIC ACT NO. 9346, ENTITLED 'AN ACT PROHIBITING THE IMPOSITION OF DEATH PENALTY IN THE PHILIPPINES,' AND AMENDING ACT NO. 3815, AS AMENDED, OTHERWISE KNOWN AS THE 'REVISED PENALTY CODE,' AND OTHER SPECIAL PENAL LAWS.”

Rep. Bondoc stated that the parliamentary status was that the Bill was in the period of sponsorship and debate.

Thereafter, on motion of Rep. Bondoc, the Chair recognized Rep. Reynaldo V. Umali, Chairperson of the Committee on Justice, who yielded the floor to Rep. Vicente “Ching” S.E. Veloso to deliver his sponsorship speech.

SPONSORSHIP SPEECH OF REP. VELOSO

Rep. Veloso initially explained the procedures that the Committee on Justice went through in deliberating on various measures on the restoration of the death penalty, namely, House Bills No. 1, 16, 513, 3237, 3239, 3240, and 3418; as well as the substitute bill, House Bill No. 4727. He cited the dates of the Committee and Sub-Committee meetings and hearings thereon; the agenda that was taken up; the resource persons, stakeholders, agencies, and organizations that were invited and the position papers they submitted; the provisions in the aforementioned bills that were modified or adopted; and the voting on Committee Report No. 47.

Rep. Veloso then cited various cases, decisions, actual crimes, and arguments in support of House Bill No. 4727. He first said that Section 19(1), Article III in support of Section 4, Article II of the Constitution, was at the core of the instant measure. He next pointed out that legislation on the death penalty was the sole concern of Congress and the Philippines was not bound by the State Party to the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights (ICCPR) and the Second Optional Protocol on the ICCPR. He subsequently said that the measure only intended to give back to the courts the option of penalizing “heinous crimes” with the penalty of reclusion perpetua to death. He added that the Bill was not anti-God, as he cited the separation of the Church and State under Section 6, Article II of the Constitution. He concluded that the measure upheld the Constitution and the matter at hand was a legal question and not a religious issue.

SPONSORSHIP SPEECH OF REP. UMALI

Recognized by the Chair, Rep. Umali discussed how House Bill No. 4727 will respond to the increasing rate of criminality and killing, restore respect for law, help achieve justice, and reform the Philippine criminal justice system. He relayed the fear of the citizenry for their lives as well as their lack of confidence about protection from law enforcers who sometimes were the perpetrators of crimes. He said that killings were brought about by criminals, by the war against drugs, and by guns-for-hire; and concluded that these proved that the criminal justice system had failed. He added that it was imperative to bring back fear to criminals, as he recalled the Committee on Justice’s hearings on the drug trade inside the New Bilibid Prison (NBP). He concluded that the criminal justice system could not be improved through piecemeal legislation but through comprehensive and holistic re-engineering.

At this juncture, Deputy Speaker Garcia-Albano relinquished the Chair to Deputy Speaker Ferdinand L. Hernandez.

After assuring the Body that the death penalty was not anti-poor and that due process will be observed, Rep. Umali urged his colleagues to make a stand and be fearless advocates of the death penalty as it was their duty to safeguard and protect the people and it was a challenge to them to reform and re-engineer the criminal justice system.

Thereafter, on motion of Rep. Roa-Puno, the Chair recognized Rep. Edcel C. Lagman.

QUESTION OF QUORUM OF REP. LAGMAN

Stating that he was ready to interpellate the Sponsor of the measure and that he already submitted a partial list of 25 Members who had manifested their intent to interpellate, Rep. Lagman inquired however whether there was a quorum.

With the permission of the Chair, Rep. Bondoc stated that previously, the Roll Call was called and a quorum was present.

Rep. Lagman observed that an hour had already passed since said Roll Call and that after the sponsorship speech of Rep. Umali, the number of Members had considerably diminished. He opined that there was no more quorum.

MOTION OF REP. LAGMAN

Rep. Lagman thereafter moved for the adjournment of session due to lack of quorum.

With the permission of the Chair, Rep. Bondoc appealed to Rep. Lagman to give a chance to the Members who had manifested their intent to interpellate on the measure. He said that dilatory tactics only cut down the time of those who wanted to be heard on the measure.

Rep. Lagman stressed that his motion was not a dilatory tactic and the Members can debate on House Bill No. 4727 only if there is a quorum.

ADJOURNMENT OF SESSION

Rep. Bondoc then joined the motion of Rep. Lagman, and there being no objection, the Chair declared the session adjourned until four o'clock in the afternoon of Wednesday, February 8, 2017.

It was 6:20 p.m.

I hereby certify to the correctness of the foregoing.
