ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF GUESTS

Rep. Defensor then acknowledged the presence in the Session Hall of guests of Rep. Florida "Rida" P. Robes.

THE PRIVILEGE HOUR

With leave of the House, on motion of Rep. Defensor, there being no objection, the Chair declared a Privilege Hour and thereafter recognized Rep. Robes to deliver her privilege speech.

PRIVILEGE SPEECH OF REP. ROBES

Rep. Robes described the continuous burning of soil, release of toxic smoke and methane gas, and intermittent oxygen explosions in the San Jose Del Monte Sanitary Landfill and how these were affecting the life, health, and safety of over 40,000 inhabitants in her district. She alleged that it was a product of a conspiracy among the City Government under former Mayor Reynaldo S. San Pedro; the VG Puyat Group, the landfill project proponent; and the Environmental Management Bureau (EMB) of the Department of Environment and Natural Resources (DENR) - Region

III. She said that contrary to the mayor's promises, the project failed to deliver employment, tourism, and economic gains. She added that the VG Puyat Group merely contributed paltry revenues and eventually ceased operations and transferred the project to the inept and soon-insolvent Alejandro Waste Management, Inc. She pointed out that the EMB hastily issued environmental compliance certificates (ECCs) despite public clamor against the project and failed to mitigate the impact of the disaster.

Rep. Robes then said that in 2011, her husband had delivered a privilege speech on the matter as a Member of Congress; and that recently, he convened the City Disaster Risk Reduction Coordinating Council as the current mayor of San Jose Del Monte City. Emphasizing that those responsible for the crisis should be held accountable and liable, she proposed that Congress conduct an investigation thereon and revisit Presidential Decree No. 1586 and Republic Act (RA) No. 8749 or the Philippine Clean Air Act of 1999.

REFERRAL OF REP. ROBES' PRIVILEGE SPEECH

On motion of Rep. Defensor, there being no objection, the Chair referred Rep. Robes' privilege speech and video presentation to the Committee on Rules.

The Chair, upon Rep. Defensor's motion, then recognized Rep. Anthony M. Bravo, Ph.D. for his privilege speech.

PRIVILEGE SPEECH OF REP. BRAVO

Rep. Bravo asked the Body to consider the damaging impact of revoking the tax exemption of cooperatives, on some 14 million members thereof. Initially, he stressed that cooperatives were instruments of social justice and development especially for the marginalized sectors of society; government's partners in development goals; employment generators; and tax contributors in the form of withheld taxes. He explained that cooperatives did not operate for profit and were not capitalist in nature; did not declare incomes or profits but surpluses which were actually savings; and returned the latter to their members in the form of interest on capital, patronage refund, education and training, and social services.

He then stressed that taxation on cooperatives would be tantamount to double taxation as members thereof already paid indirect taxes under RA No. 9520. He added that cooperatives had legitimate rights to tax exemption as he cited provisions of the 1987 Constitution and Supreme Court decisions on the importance of cooperatives. He clarified that the tax exemption granted to cooperatives was limited to those with accumulated reserves and undivided net savings of not more than ₱10 million.

Subsequently, he stressed that the cooperatives sector supported the pro-poor programs of the Duterte Administration but believed that the latter could improve the plight of the lower strata without compromising the tax exemption of cooperatives whose members were primarily the poor and marginalized. He asked for the Body's support for strengthening and not weakening the cooperative movement; and presented an audio-visual documentary of rallies against the repeal of the tax exemption of cooperatives, which were conducted across the country by members of various cooperatives.

REMARKS OF REP. DEFENSOR

Rep. Defensor reminded Rep. Bravo (A.) to refrain from referring to the issue of tax exemptions of cooperatives because measures thereon were pending in the Committee on Ways and Means.

The Chair concurred therewith.

MOTION OF REP. ATIENZA

Recognized by the Chair, Rep. Jose L. Atienza Jr. moved for the calling of the Roll.

REFERRAL OF REP. BRAVO'S PRIVILEGE SPEECH

Before the Body could act on Rep. Atienza's motion, on motion of Rep. Defensor, there being no objection, the Body referred Rep. Bravo's privilege speech and video presentation to the Committee on Rules.

TERMINATION OF THE PRIVILEGE HOUR

Likewise, on motion of Rep. Defensor, there being no objection, the Body terminated the Privilege Hour.
