ARTICLE II
AGRICULTURAL, FISHERIES AND RURAL DEVELOPMENT
FINANCING SYSTEM

SEC. 4. Agricultural, Fisheries and Rural Development Financing System. – There shall be an agricultural, fisheries and rural development financing system to improve the welfare, competitiveness, income and productivity of the members of a rural community particularly the farmers, fisherfolk, ARBs, agrarian reform communities, settlers, agricultural lessees, amortizing owners, farmworkers, fishworkers, owner-cultivators, compact farmers, tenant farmers, and members of their households and their MSMEs, as well as farmers and fisherfolk cooperatives, organizations and associations, through government and private banking institutions.

Agricultural, fisheries and rural development financing, as used herein, shall consist of loans, investments and grants to finance activities that shall enhance productivity and increase income of an agricultural and fisheries household, thereby promoting agricultural sector productivity and competitiveness, as well as the sustainable development of rural communities. These shall include the activities identified under the AMCFP as enumerated under Chapter 3, Section 23 of Republic Act No. 8435, off-farm/fishery activities, agricultural mechanization/ modernization, agri-tourism, green finance projects, acquisition of lands authorized under the Agrarian Reform Code of the Philippines and its amendments, efficient and effective marketing, processing, distribution and storage of agricultural and fishery commodities, public rural infrastructure, as well as programs that shall address the developmental needs of rural communities, such as projects that promote the livelihood, skills enhancement, and other capacity-building activities of the rural community beneficiaries and all other activities consistent or analogous to the foregoing, as may be determined by the Agricultural and Fisheries Finance and Capacity-Building Council (AFFCC), as created under Article III of this Act.
SEC. 5. Rural Community Beneficiaries of the Development Financing System. — The financing system mentioned in the preceding section shall be extended to farmers, fisherfolk, ARBs, settlers, agricultural lessees, amortizing owners, farmworkers, fishworkers, owner-cultivators, compact farmers, tenant farmers, and members of their households, or to cooperatives, associations, MSMEs or organizations in good standing of such beneficiaries located in rural communities, regardless of capitalization based on the feasibility of the project and their paying capacity, their estimated production, and/or securities they can provide, as well as such assets as may be acquired by them from the proceeds of the loan, investments, and grants.

SEC. 6. Credit Quota. — All banking institutions, whether government or private, except newly established banks for a period of five (5) years from the date of commencement of the banks’ operations, shall set aside a credit quota, or a minimum mandatory agricultural and fisheries financing requirement of at least twenty-five percent (25%) of their total loanable funds.

The total loanable funds generated by a banking institution shall be defined by the Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas (BSP). During the first year of the effectivity of this Act, the total loanable funds generated shall be computed starting from 20 April 2010, the effectivity of Republic Act No. 10000, or “The Agri-Agra Reform Credit Act of 2009”, after which the bank’s total loanable funds shall be determined based on funds generated starting from the second year of effectivity of this Act.

SEC. 7. Modes of Compliance With the Mandatory Credit to Agri-Agra Beneficiaries. — Banks may comply with the mandatory credit requirement by lending to rural community beneficiaries to finance agricultural and fishery-related activities identified under the AMCFP as enumerated under Chapter 3, Section 23 of Republic Act No. 8435, off-farm/fishery activities, agricultural mechanization/modernization, agri-tourism, green finance projects, marketing, processing, distribution and storage of agricultural and fishery commodities, livelihood projects, skills enhancement or capacity-building programs.

Banks may also comply with the mandatory financing requirement through other means as follows:

(a) Investing in debt securities, including those issued by the Development Bank of the Philippines (DBP) and the Land Bank of the Philippines (LBP): Provided, That the proceeds from said debt securities shall be used to finance activities under Section 4 hereof: Provided, further, That the proceeds from debt securities issued by the DBP and the LBP shall be separately accounted for and shall not be considered for purposes of computing the loanable funds of the said banks as described in Section 6 hereof;

(b) Opening deposit accounts with rural financial institutions: Provided, That the deposit accounts shall be separately accounted for by the depository bank and shall not be considered for purposes of computing the loanable funds of the said banks as described in Section 6 hereof;

(c) Rediscouting with banks eligible paper covering agriculture, fisheries and agrarian reform credits: Provided, That a rediscouted paper shall no longer be eligible as compliance on the part of the originating bank;

(d) Investing directly in shares of stock of rural financial institutions, subject to prevailing laws, rules or regulations or lend wholesale to rural financial institutions: Provided, That the wholesale loans shall be credited as compliance of the bank acting as wholesale lender alone;

(e) Lending for the construction and upgrading of infrastructure, including farm-to-market roads, as well as the provision of post-harvest facilities and other public rural infrastructure that will benefit the agriculture, fisheries and agrarian reform sector;

(f) Lending to agri-business enterprises that maintain agricultural commodity supply-chain arrangements directly with rural community beneficiaries;

(g) Undertaking agricultural value chain financing to actors or players in the AVC that benefits rural communities; and

(h) Investing in shares of stock of the Philippine Crop Insurance Corporation or in companies that primarily engage in activities under Section 4 hereof that benefit rural community beneficiaries:

Provided, That, the loans and investments that are counted as compliance are not funded by proceeds from the issuance of debt securities, and/or lending of other banks that have been counted as compliance with the mandatory credit: Provided, further, That loans to finance activities that shall generally benefit ARBs, ARCs, or other priority sectors, as may be determined by the AFFCC, shall be counted at not more than ten (10) times their outstanding amount, as may be prescribed by the AFFCC, for purposes of determining compliance with the mandatory agricultural and fisheries financing requirement.

The modes of compliance provided herein shall be subject to review by the AFFCC once implemented to determine whether or not these are adequate to support the financing requirements of rural communities and to gather the data to form the basis of recommendations for remedial legislation, if necessary.

SEC. 8. Penalty Clause. — The BSP shall impose administrative sanctions and other penalties on the lending institutions for violation of any of the provisions of this Act. Penalties on noncompliance or undercompliance with the mandatory agricultural and fisheries financing requirement shall be computed at one-half of one percent (0.5%) of noncompliance or undercompliance. Upon collection of the penalties, the BSP shall remit the same to the AFFCC for deposit to the Special Fund created under Article IV of this Act. Ten percent (10%) of the penalties collected shall be retained by the BSP to cover administrative expenses.

ARTICLE III

AGRICULTURAL AND FISHERIES

FINANCE AND CAPACITY-BUILDING COUNCIL (AFFCC)

SEC. 9. Agricultural and Fisheries Finance and Capacity-Building Council (AFFCC). — There shall be created an Agricultural and Fisheries Finance and Capacity-Building Council (AFFCC) which shall be composed of the heads, or their designated representatives, of the following agencies: the Department of Agriculture (DA), as Chair; the BSP; the Department of Agrarian Reform (DAR); the Department of Trade and Industry (DTI); the Cooperative Development Authority (CDA); the LBP; the DBP; and nine (9) representatives from the private sector as members, one of whom shall be appointed as Vice-Chair. The private sector representatives shall include the heads or the designated representatives of the Bankers Association of the Philippines (BAP), as Vice-Chair; the Rural Bankers Association of the Philippines (RBAP); the Chamber of Thrift Banks (CTB); the Cooperative Banks Federation of the Philippines (BANGKOOP); the Microfinance Council of the Philippines, Inc. (MCPI); the Philippine Chamber of Commerce and Industry (PCCI); and a representative each from the cooperative sector, the farmers, and the fisherfolk sector. The AFFCC shall be organized not later than one (1) year from the date of effectivity of this Act.

SEC. 10. Powers, Duties and Functions of the AFFCC. — The AFFCC shall have the following powers, duties, and functions:

(a) To set the target amount for the Special Fund to meet the organizational- and capacity-building requirements of cooperatives and other duly registered organizations of rural agricultural and fisheries households over a period of ten (10) years;

(b) To determine the annual requirement of the Special Fund;

(c) To identify eligible recipients of the Special Fund;

(d) To identify eligible agricultural- and fishery-related capacity-building programs and activities that may be financed by the Special Fund;

(e) To ensure the effective implementation of programs financed by the Special Fund and, for this purpose, to employ or outsource resources and expertise from the banking industry that can provide project coordination and fund management services;

(f) To periodically assess the adequacy of the fund capital in financing the capacity-building requirements of rural cooperatives and other duly registered organizations of rural agricultural and fisheries households; and

(g) To ensure compliance with the reporting, monitoring, evaluation and audit requirements of the Special Fund and activities financed.

ARTICLE IV
AGRI-BUSINESS MANAGEMENT CAPACITY AND INSTITUTION-BUILDING FUND

SEC. 11. There shall be created a special fund to be known as the Agri-business Management Capacity and Institution-Building Fund, hereinafter referred to as the Special Fund, to finance agricultural- and fishery-related organizational-, capacity- and institution-building programs and activities of cooperatives and other duly registered organizations of rural agricultural and fisheries households. The AFFCC shall ensure that the Special Fund is sufficient for the effective implementation of the aforementioned activities and programs. For purposes of ensuring the sufficiency of the Special Fund, banks may comply with the mandatory credit requirement by providing contributions to the Special Fund which shall be counted at not more than five (5) times the amount of contribution, as may be prescribed by the AFFCC, for purposes of determining compliance with the mandatory agricultural and fisheries financing requirement.

SEC. 12. The initial amount of the Special Fund shall at least be Ten billion pesos (P10,000,000,000.00) and shall include penalties due from banks on their noncompliance or undercompliance with the mandatory Agri-Agra credit requirement under Republic Act No. 10000, collected after the effectivity of this Act, net of the ten percent (10%) amount to be retained by the BSP. In case of a shortfall, the banks shall advance a maximum amount of Two billion pesos (P2,000,000,000.00), which shall be chargeable against future penalties under this Act, if any, and shall not be considered as a mode of compliance under Section 11 hereof.
SEC. 13. Banks, duly registered training and capacity-building organizations, cooperatives and other duly registered organizations that support rural agricultural and fisheries households may apply with the AFFCC for funding for their capacity- and institution-building programs and activities.

SEC. 14. Audit. — The Special Fund shall be audited by the Commission on Audit (COA) in accordance with existing auditing laws, rules and regulations.

ARTICLE V
MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

SEC. 15. Oversight Committee. — There shall be an oversight committee over the implementation of this Act composed of the following: the Chairperson of the Committee on Banks and Financial Intermediaries of the House of Representatives, Chairperson of the Committee on Banks, Financial Institutions and Currencies of the Senate, a representative from the Office of the President and a representative from the COA.

SEC. 16. Annual Reports. — The BSP shall furnish reports on the compliance with the mandatory agricultural and fisheries financing requirement to the Congress of the Philippines on a yearly basis. The BSP shall, as part of its regulatory functions, monitor the compliance by banks with the requirements of this Act.

SEC. 17. Duration of the Effectivity of the Credit Quota and Special Fund for Capacity-Building Programs. — The provisions related to the mandatory credit quota under Article II hereof shall cease to have effect ten (10) years from effectivity of this Act. The management and administration of the Special Fund under Articles III and IV hereof shall cease to have effect ten (10) years from the organization of the AFFCC. Any remaining balance of the Special Fund under the custody of the AFFCC shall be turned over to the National Treasury.

SEC. 18. Implementing Rules and Regulations. — The BSP shall promulgate such rules and regulations as may be necessary to implement Articles I and II of this Act within ninety (90) days after effectivity of this Act. The BSP shall organize a task force which shall promulgate such rules and regulations as may be necessary to implement Articles III and IV of this Act within ninety (90) days after effectivity of this Act.

SEC. 19. Separability Clause. — If any part, section or provision of this Act is held invalid or unconstitutional, other provisions not affected thereby shall remain in force and effect.

SEC. 20. Repealing Clause. — The provisions of Republic Act No. 10000, Executive Order No. 113 and any other laws, presidential decrees, executive orders, rules and regulations, or parts thereof inconsistent with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed or modified accordingly.

SEC. 21. Effectivity. — This Act shall take effect fifteen (15) days after its publication in the Official Gazette or in a newspaper of general circulation.

Approved,
