HOUSE BILL NO. 4429

Introduced by Honorable Deogracias Victor 'DV' B. Savellano

EXPLANATORY NOTE

A quick survey of the gains achieved since Republic Act No.8371 otherwise known as, "An Act to Recognize, Protect and Promote the Rights of Indigenous Cultural Communities /Indigenous Peoples, creating a National Commission on Indigenous Peoples, Establishing and Implementing Mechanisms, Appropriating Funds Therefor and for other purposes", would show that proactive actions remain lacking.

It could be accounted for by the fact that our culture is not that rooted in ways that would preserve, enhance and develop what truly are authentically indigenous – not just people but arts and culture as well. Traditional indigenous crafts and products are gradually disappearing; songs, chants, dances, poetry and story-telling are losing ground and even the famous tattoo art in the highland of Mountain Province is losing adherents because no sustained efforts are directed to ensure the survival of these indigenous ways such that these are passed on from generation to generation. The struggle is not totally lost though. Some local government units in the country are exerting efforts that living, indigenous traditions are sustained. Arts and Culture councils endeavor to preserve indigenous folklores and, in the process, enhance and develop these through careful documentation and applying information, education and communication (IEC) strategies.

In the Province of Ilocos Sur, particularly in the First District, there is a significant community of indigenous peoples whose way of life, products and crafts are worthy of preservation, enhancement and development. With private sector assistance and help from the academe, these efforts could still multiply. It is for this reason that an Indigenous Training Center be established in the Municipality of Magsingal as a hub for the gradual mainstreaming of indigenous arts, crafts and culture.

Approval of this measure is thus earnestly sought.
