WHEREAS, the Covid19 pandemic created an unprecedented and novel public health crisis that continues to endanger the lives of all Filipinos, and strain to the limits the capabilities and resources of the government, especially its public health system;

WHEREAS, despite real, continuing, and terrifying risks to their lives, and the lives and well-being of their families, various medical professionals which include , among others, medical doctors, nurses and providers of ancillary medical and health services in hospitals and similar medical and health facilities in both the public and the private sectors, willingly and courageously manned the frontlines of the battle against Covid 19 by attending incessantly to saving the lives of thousands infected by the virus, providing services for the conduct of tests for infection, vaccinations, as well as monitoring the spread of the virus so as to enable government in the national and local levels, to adopt responsive interventions and measures to protect the greater number of our citizens;

WHEREAS, other frontliners which consisted of law enforcement and military officials and personnel, local government officials and personnel, and other providers of essential services from transportation to communication and food services, among others, also rose to the challenge of fighting the pandemic despite the dangers to their lives and their well-being, and the welfare of their families;

WHEREAS, so many of these brave and selfless frontliners, especially those among our medical professionals and nurses, rendered the ultimate sacrifice when they lost their lives as a result of their devotion to saving the lives of others, leaving their families deprived of their care and protection;

WHEREAS, the country and our people, owe our frontliners immeasurable and unending gratitude for their bravery, professionalism and self-sacrificing labors in attending to the afflicted and saving the lives of thousands of Filipinos;

WHEREAS, the frontliners in the fight against the COVID19 pandemic have become exemplary embodiments of patriotism and self-sacrifice to secure the welfare of our people, and will serve as beacons of inspiration to succeeding generations of Filipinos,

NOW, THEREFORE , BE IT RESOLVED AS IT IS HEREBY RESOLVED , that the members of the House of Representatives express their most profound gratitude and convey their highest commendation to all the frontliners in the country's fight against the Covid19 pandemic which includes all the medical professionals, nurses, and ancillary health service workers, law enforcement and military officers and personnel, and other providers of essential services in both the public and the private sectors, in recognition of their courageous and selfless efforts and sacrifices to save the lives of thousands of the afflicted, prevent the spread of the virus in our communities, and enable our countrymen to cope with and survive the difficult challenges of the pandemic to their lives and their collective welfare.
